Dairy-Deli-Bakery Council of Southern California

Bud Moorman Scholarship Foundation

Statement of purpose

Scholarships in the amount up to $1,000 each will be awarded for Fall & Spring Semesters.

Money for these scholarships is raised by the members of the council and is generated from generous donations and fund raisers including opportunity drawings at various events.

The DDBC is an organization dedicated to the principle that professionals in all areas of the perishable food industry are essential. The council provides educational programs through meetings, networking, speakers, seminars, panel discussions, deli schools, and symposiums relevant to the business interests of Association members.

Scholarships are an extension of these educational programs. Since reaching out is a way of recognizing and investing in our future, the importance of the scholarship is an asset to our organization.

To be eligible an applicant must:

1. Be a current member (regular or associate) of the DDBC or an immediate, legal family member.
2. Be enrolled in or applying for college and must be accepted to attend at the time the check is issued.
3. Demonstrate above academic achievement. (3.0 GPA or greater)
4. Submit two letters of recommendation (one from instructor from current or past year and one from an employer, community service group or additional instructor).
5. Submit letter describing how the scholarship may assist in meeting his/her professional goals.
6. Copy of official school transcript.
7. Copy of current enrollment.
8. Agree to attend awards presentation program meeting as a guest of the DDBC.
9. Scholarship recipient check will be issued to recipient and school they are attending.

Announcing the
Dairy-Deli Bakery Council of Southern California
Scholarship Foundation

Dear Member:

Applications are being accepted for the annual DDBC Scholarship award. This award is open to members of the DDBC in good standing.

We are expecting to award scholarships at our November 10th dinner meeting. Scholarship recipients must demonstrate above average academic achievement, laudable future plans and the desire to further their education to better our industry. The award may be used for undergraduate and/or graduate study.

Please contact the DDBC office for an application. The application must be returned or postmarked by Friday, August 28, 2020.
